512 Poplar Street, Cambridge, MD 21613—whcp.org—443.637.6000

WE ARE GETTING EXCITED!

We are now wiring the equipment for WHCP's new studios at 516 Race Street! The new state-of-the-art Cambridge Community Media Center will house four studios - a live performance space (to be known as the Groove City Recording Studio) with a 34 input Pacific Recorders & Engineering STX console, a retractable stage, for conducting training workshops and community events, plus three full service radio studios and two announce booths. As a result, the Shore Stories oral history program and MidShore Radio Reading Service will have dedicated space. The expanded capabilities will allow a greater range of skills to be taught in the WHCP MidShore Internship Program. Jessica Feldt of Preservation Maryland presents a $5000 check to WHCP. Look for the grand opening and tours in the coming weeks.

WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED- THE WHCP COMMUNITY CALENDAR IS BACK!

The Cambridge Community Radio Calendar for 2018 coming in October! The photos are in and the jury is hard at work evaluating the stunning submissions by area photographers. You will love the results! The Cambridge Community Radio Calendar makes the perfect holiday gift for your friends and family. There's something for everyone -- including the details on the dozens of major Cambridge area events for your year-round planning. Parents love the complete Dorchester Public School schedule, and hunters and fisherman like the convenience of seeing the upcoming season opens on the same calendar. The Calendar will be available exclusively to WHCP Members signing up for a new or renewing membership during the WHCP Fall Membership drive in October -- and at participating sponsors. Listen on air or on line for all the details!

MEANDER WITH MICMAN —WIN A FREE 2018 CALENDAR!

This summer WHCP started a fun "Do you know where this is?" photo contest we are calling "Meandering MicMan". So you think you know Cambridge and vicinity? Well, keep your eyes on our Facebook page for the appearance of a snapshot of a frequently overlooked landmark, large or small, that the public travels by everyday. If you are the first to correctly identify the landmark and its location, you will be the lucky winner of a coveted 2018 Community Calendar! Just email us at calendar@whcp.org - it's that easy. Here's the first snapshot of MicMan around town!

FAREWELL TO WHCP INTERNS CLASS OF 2017 & WELCOME 2018 INTERNS!

This summer we extend our best wishes to the WHCP Class of 2017 Interns: Matt King, Amanda Tilghman, and Jes Schaubert. We are happy to report that all three were admitted to their colleges of choice -- and all three will be pursuing careers in the electronic media. We will all be able to brag about hearing them on WHCP before they were discovered on the national scene! The incoming Class of 2018 will be meeting with our outgoing interns as we ramp up the fall semester activities. Know a freshman, sophomore or junior interested in pursuing a media career? Tell them to contact their counselor about applying to the WHCP internship program in the years ahead. Full details are available via info@whcp.org.

Painting Aunt Polly's Fence —A volunteer work day.

As we get ready to move from our humble home on Poplar to our great big new spiffy studios at 516 Race St., there is lots to do! We are looking for volunteers to help with the transition. Packers, painters and general organizers are needed! We will provide supplies, modest direction and, most likely, drinks and lunch!

The first date will be July 8th – Saturday morning – and we will be painting interior walls. We are hoping to begin moving around the first of August into a partially completed space at 516. Watch our Facebook page and our website for an update on the exact days. Please email us at info@whcp.org to let us know you and your friends will help! Remember painting Aunt Polly's fence? It's always more fun with friends!
